5 次の英文を読んで、後の問いに答えなさい。

John and Mike were *twins ①( live ) in a small village. They looked so alike that people couldn't tell one from the other. Their mother gave them two T-shirts, a blue one for John and a green one for Mike.

One day, their mother got sick, but they were too poor ②( buy ) medicine. Mike collected all the money in their house and went to the drugstore and John took care ( A ) their mother at home.

There was only one small drugstore in the village. People didn't like the owner, Mrs. Adams, because she was not a kind woman.

"Mrs. Adams, I need this medicine for my mother. But I only have 30 dollars," said Mike.

"I'm sorry, but that's not enough."

"Please.... That's all I have."

"Well..., I have an idea! I'll ask you three questions. If you can answer them all, I promise to give you this medicine for just 30 dollars. If you can't, you'll have to pay 30 dollars and work here for one month. Don't worry, you can get the medicine right now, ③( either way )."

"Thank you, Mrs. Adams."

"Well then, I'll give you the questions. First, how heavy is the moon? Second, how deep is the sea? And third, what am I thinking now?"

Mike thought about them, but he couldn't answer any of the questions. "Can I go and give my mother the medicine now and then come back?" Mike said. "That's OK, but I'm busy, so come back soon," Mrs. Adams said.

When Mike got home, he told John everything.

"Unbelievable!" said John. "And you have to work there for one month!" "That's OK. We have the medicine now and it will help our mother," said Mike. John stood *for a while and said, "I have an idea. I'll put on your T-shirt and go to the drugstore this time." John went there instead ( A ) Mike.

"Nice to meet you again, Mike. Let's begin." Mrs. Adams said, "First, how heavy is the moon?" The boy in Mike's green T-shirt answered, "It's ④(      ) the air."

"Why?"

"Because the moon is high up in the sky."

Mrs. Adams was surprised to hear this clever answer.

"OK, the second one. How deep is the sea?"

"*A stone's throw."

"A stone's throw?" she said.

“When I throw a stone into the sea, it goes straight to the *bottom. So the sea is a stone’s throw deep!” he answered. She was shocked to hear another clever answer, but she thought he couldn’t answer the last one.

Mrs. Adams said, “Now, the last question. What am I thinking now?”

The boy answered, “Well, you’re thinking that I’m ( B ) but I’m.... ( C )!”

Mrs. Adams couldn’t say anything. All her questions were answered at last.

Finally, she smiled and said, “You don’t have to work. Your brother already paid the money, and you answered all my questions. That’s enough. I’m sure your mother must be proud ( A ) you.”

*twins ふたご            *for a while しばらくの間

*a stone’s throw 石を投げて届く距離            *bottom 底

⑥ 次の英文を読んで、後の問いに答えなさい。

Last week, I went to Dr. Tim's lesson. He gave us some health advice. I'll tell you about it.

He said five things. The first thing is (1). Some studies show that students ①( ) eat a *balanced breakfast do better at school. A balanced breakfast helps you to take in *vitamins and *minerals. If you eat a good breakfast, you won't overeat during the day.

The second is (2). When it is very hot, your body wants more water. If you don't get enough water, you may feel sick. You have to be very careful after you play sports. People often forget to drink water.

The third is (3). It is very good to exercise for an hour every day. You will feel relaxed after you exercise. You may say, "I'm not good at sports." No problem. You can jump rope or dance. If you like sports, you should play soccer or basketball. ②( )( A )( )( B )( ).

The next is (4). If you wash your hands carefully, you will not get a cold. Some people say that you need to wash your hands with running water for more than one minute to keep you from getting sick. You must be *especially careful in winter.

The final advice is (5). Sleep is important for your growth and health. Good sleep at night helps you to make a good start in the morning. You should not look ③( ) a smartphone in bed to get good sleep. You must turn off the smartphone before ④(go) to bed. You must also go to bed at the same time every night to *have a regular schedule for a healthy life.

That's all the doctor told us last week, but I want to add one more thing for our health. It is to communicate with people around you. Try to talk with your friends more, and you'll understand each other better and you'll be happier. When you have good communication, you will be healthy *mentally, too. I hope you listen to my advice.

*balanced バランスの取れた    *vitamin ビタミン    *mineral ミネラル
